Department of Electrical & Electronic Engineering
The University of Hong Kong
Application for loan of PC (Technical project)

Date of Application: Day _________ Month _________ Year ____________

Name: ____________________ Chinese Name (if applicable): __________________

Class: ☐ EComE ☐ EE ☐ CE ☐ InfoE ☐ Others: ____________

University No.: ________________ Email Address: _______________________

Tel. No.: _____________________ P.C. Location: _________________________

Supervisor: ________________________ _______________________

Description of project: ____________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

Applicant's Signature: __________________________ Supervisor's Signature:

______________________ ________________ ______

Note

1. Only students working on hardware projects will normally be allocated with a PC. Software projects should be done in the central PC Lab (CYC 103)

2. Please hand this completed form to the Computer Services Group at CYC 804 in office hours. Forms are INVALID without ALL proper signatures. When the P.C. is ready to collect, we shall send an email to you. For enquiries, please email to support@eee.hku.hk or tel. 2859-2695